Kolot (Voices to End Domestic Abuse in the Jewish Community) presents "Flowers Aren't Enough." This play (view clips from movie), written and performed by Naomi Ackerman includes audience discussion. Flowers Aren't Enough is a monologue that tells the story of Michelle, a young woman from an upper-middle class family who finds herself in an abusive relationship. We follow her relationship from it's beginning, where love and attention cause Michelle to excuse and overlook abuse. Michelle describes how her partner gradually managed to narrow her world and isolate her; how she slowly sank into a world of denial, guilt and despair; how she blamed herself for her partner's escalating violence. She explains why she could not bring herself to accept the help offered by social service workers. Michelle describes the roller coaster of violent quarrels and tearful making-up that became her life, until she had to

It is the balance of our minds & hearts; a harmony that effects all the relationships in our lives - parents, spouses & lovers, children, friends, co-workers and even the earth itself.

"If I had known how amazing this retreat was going to be, I would have booked earlier, paid 50% more, and invited everyone I know to take part!"

- Bob Heaton (April 2007 retreat attendee)

Join us for this event-filled weekend cruise & workshop and dance, sing, learn and enjoy your way to deeper, better and more fulfilling relationships in every aspect of your life.

"Rabbi Marc has a way of touching sweet, simple truths with wisdom, humor and relevance. Each day we were drawn deeper into discovering ourselves. As the huge ship rocked us all with the same gentle motion, it seemed the perfect accompaniment to the romance we entered into with our souls."

- Anne Goldberg (April 2007 retreat attendee)
