Schedule
September 18, 2008

New this week

In addition to bringing snacks and/or desserts, we also need soda, water and wine for Saturday's Selichot... and help cleaning up before you leave. Volunteers call Rhonda Hey at 954-205-3441. Thanks... it's with your support that people like Florence volunteer their homes for our wonderful events.

There is no Wisdom Class Monday, September 22. Classes resume after the High Holy Days.

The October Women's Spirituality Group meets the fourth Tuesday instead of the third Tuesday. Please mark your calendar for October 28.

The Men's Spirituality Group is reforming. Watch your email box for details. Dr. Richard Hey will facilitate. Read the preliminary article below. Thanks, Richard!

Welcome to our new Board of Directors, installed at last Sunday's Town Hall meeting...

Marketing: Jenae Rubin
At Large: Rochelle Horowitz
Immediate Past President: Myrna Wolf

Welcome to TAO

At TAO, you find joy, meaning & purpose to life. We identify universal truths rooted in Torah, Kabbalah and other traditional Jewish sources and draw deeply on our inner truths, communal wisdom and spiritual traditions in accordance with the ongoing process of the living Torah.

Meditation, dance, chanting, song and music, present in Judaism throughout the ages, is an integral part of our services.

Join us and embark on a spiritual journey into your Jewish soul!

The next Programming Committee meeting is Sunday, September 21 at 12:30pm. It isn't too late to get involved with TAO programming for the coming year. There's a thoughtful, probing and fun assortment of events to choose from. Be part of the excitement in creating magic for the community - both current and future. Please email Lowell headhunt31@aol.com or call him 954-240-1944 and let him know you are coming. The more the merrier!

We have lots of great ideas, and now it's time to put it all together. So, do join us to help. Thanks!

Selichot TAO style!

As the month of Elul comes to a close, our efforts toward Teshuva (a return to the truth of who we are) intensify. From the Saturday night before Rosh Hashanah, there is an old custom of offering special prayers each midnight through Yom Kippur. These prayers are called Selichot (poems of forgiveness) and are appeals to God to help us to forgive, clear and renew.

Beginning at 9PM, Rabbi Marc will lead us through singing, chanting, praying and cleansing. As is our tradition at TAO, the Mikvah ritual (immersion in the pool) will be part of the Selichot program, so please bring your bathing suit and towel.

Carpooling will conserve gas and offer the opportunity to enjoy your TAO friends at the same time.

Click here for a list of volunteers.

I would like to thank Rabbi Marc for his support at the unveiling of my parents' grave as our small family gathered in South Florida. We celebrated their life, and Rabbi Marc was gifted in helping to weave our emotions to be present for that blessing. I wish your Havura a sweet and healthy New Year.

I am moved and humbled by the outpouring of love and support from my loving TAO family. My mother, of blessed memory, was laid to rest next to my father in Waterloo, Iowa on September 2. Rabbi Marc officiated, for which my family and I are eternally grateful. All who wish may join our family on Sunday at her Florida memorial service.

Yom Kippur is distinguished by the Yizkor Memorial Service. In Yizkor (May He Remember) prayers, we ask Hashem to remember the souls of our loved ones who passed. These include primarily family members; husbands and wives, parents and grandparents, brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles and children. Whether you will be worshipping with us or not, we believe you will wish to have a memory of your departed loved ones included in the Yizkor "Scroll of Remembrance" Book. Special prayers for those recorded will be recited by the Rabbis.

You can also have their names permanently inscribed on the gorgeous, memorial Yahrtzeit plaque.

May the New Year be one of abundant blessings for you, your dear ones and the world. We look forward to greeting you soon and worshipping together at the upcoming High Holy Day Services.

conflict that they cope with every day.

No matter your religion or faith, most agree that every child is born with a spirit capable of adding light to the world. Every child deserves the right to spread that brightness in an environment where they are safe and nurtured. By volunteering for the Broward County Guardian ad Litem Program (GALP), this can become possible.

Volunteer Guardians ad Litem serve as advocates for abused, abandoned and neglected children in the community and courtroom. Guardians give a voice to children at their most vulnerable time. We are all brought into the world for a purpose, and the GALP allows us to share that purpose by empowering our children to one day share theirs.

Guardians ad Litem must complete an application, interview, background check, and 30 hour training program to be certified. If you are interested in learning more about the program please contact Drew Korenvaes at 954-831-6477, Drew.Korenvaes@gal.fl.gov or visit their website at www.guardianadlitem.org.

What may take only a few hours a month for you, may change the lifetime for a child.

Celebrate your special occasion (birthday, anniversary, promotion) or say thank you or honor someone special by sponsoring an Oneg. Full and partial sponsorships are possible. Sponsorships benefit your business too as it is publicized at the service, in our newsletter and website. The Rabbi will personally acknowledge and thank you.

To sponsor an upcoming Oneg, call the office to schedule: 954-252-1313.

Feel free to bring a dish to share too! Please write your name on homemade dishes for people who would like recipes. Thanks!

Shabbos Food Drive

Please bring canned food to services for those who are hungry every day of the year. We are helping the Broward County Cooperative Feeding Program, so bring non-perishable food to services. Each time we bring our dancing feet to prayer and to The Holy One, we can fill our hands with cans. Help continue our mission.

Location

ArtServe, 1350 East Sunrise Blvd, Ft. Lauderdale
