New this week...

Due to Passover, this week's newsletter is early.

There's a new classified ad below. Please check it out!

Counting of the Omer

Starting second day of Pesach, we entered seven weeks of deep personal discovery of yourself and the Divine. We begin Counting of the Omer. Each day is a significant day. Each week is a significant week that relates to a Kabbalistic Sefirah.

The second week is Chesed: GivoraH - Strength and structure. During this week, look for ways this trait appears to you. Allow it to be your focus for the week, and be inspired.

For each day's significance, there is a blessing and daily practice. Amichai Heppner wrote a book with the daily blessings and explanations. He generously offered 100% of the proceeds to TAO. Click here to buy the book (it's an eBook... this means, you'll get a pdf file sent to your email box, and you can print it out... or be green, and read it online). This book follows the Kabbalistic teachings of the Counting of the Omer.

"Amichai's book is very interesting and it certainly adds a new dimension, so to speak, to counting the Omer."

Wisdom by Rabbi Shoni Labowitz

Freedom is a result not of outside influences so much as of your inner spirit. One can have all the luxuries and wealth in the world and feel imprisoned; another can be locked away for a life sentence and feel free.

Special thanks to Dr. Lisa J. Sirota-Weiner.

Rabbi Marc is teaching a course in this right now at the Monday Wisdom Classes. Join him at 7pm, and get even deeper insights into achieving peace and oneness with God and your life.
