This Week's Parsha

May 7, 2009

13 Iyar 5769

Emor: Leviticus 21:1-24:23

"The law seeks equity and restitution 'eye for eye, tooth for tooth.'"

Wisdom by Rabbi Shoni Labowitz

In choosing the path of justice, remember that what fosters goodness, unconditional love, and honor the partnership between humans, the earth, and God. We recall the giving of the Torah at Mount Sinai and renew our intention to bring an element of holiness into our relationships.

The following materials for study each highlight the concept that within the relationship of any two people or things, additional elements are present that define, influence, catalyze, and transform. As you review the material, consider the following questions: What elements do you consider essential in successful relationships?

Do traditional Judeo-Christian ethics determine what is "right" or "holy" in relationships? Can we learn something in the study that helps to heal our own troubled relationships?

See flyer for full details and assignments, which you must be committed to fulfilling. This is a members only event. Call the office to reserve your spot (954-888-1408). Limited registration.

We need a new (good) copier in the office. Will you sponsor it? If so, please call the office (954-888-1408) with your donation for $750. Thank you so much.

Counting of the Omer

On the second day of Pesach, we entered seven weeks of deep personal discovery of yourself and the Divine. We began Counting of the Omer. Each day and each week has a significant relation to a Kabbalistic Sefirah.

The fifth week is Hod: Retreat and Refinement. During this week, look for ways this trait appears to you. Allow it to be your focus for the week, and be inspired.

For each day's significance, there is a blessing and daily practice. Amichai Heppner wrote a book with the daily blessings and explanations. He generously offered 100% of the proceeds to TAO. Click here to buy the book (it's an eBook... this means, you'll get a pdf file sent to your email box, and you can print it out... or be green, and read it online). This book follows the Kabbalistic teachings of the Counting of the Omer.

"Amichai's book is very interesting and it certainly adds a new dimension, so to speak, to counting the Omer."

is what strengthens the spirit of God in you.

Special thanks to Dr. Lisa J. Sirota-Weiner.

In the spirit of Tzedakah, Paulina and Rabbi Marc set up two funds at TAO - a Galia fund and an Ocean fund. A portion of these funds will be used to send toys and other needed items to Jewish and non-Jewish organizations that serve children, including Jafco.

When you share your sweetness to celebrate Galia's birthday (December 3) and Ocean's birthday (June 28) and other occasions, please donate to TAO and specify the Galia or Ocean fund instead of generously offering toys, clothing and other gifts. In this way, children will benefit from your sweet generosity.

Paulina and Rabbi Marc will be informed that you gifted their children and performed an act of Tzedakah in their children's honor.

We want to make sure we don't lose the ability to continue to have services at the Rabbi's home, so please follow this parking procedure:

Drive to the Rabbi's house. An attendant will give you a handout with the places you may park. YOU MAY NOT PARK ANYWHERE YOU WISH. Rabbi Marc did a lot of work to secure parking places acceptable to his development's Board and the City. We must respect the allotments and not park elsewhere.

Please respect the neighbors if they should ask you to move your car or not park in their swale - even if they had previously given permission to park there. By being respectful of their wishes, it will guarantee fewer problems in the future.

Children of Abraham Dialogue Groups

TAO has been selected to pair with a local mosque in Sunrise for a "Children of Abraham" dialogue group as part of a new experimental movement happening in various cities across the United States.

Rabbi Marc and their new young imam (from Tulsa, OK) and between 6 and 15 members from each congregation will commit to meet regularly, most likely monthly, for 6-8 sessions at a place and time of their own choosing-- rather like an "Interfaith Havurah." Refreshments will be served to encourage friendly socializing.

The group will have available a resource curriculum guide, "Children of Abraham: Jews and Muslims in Conversation" prepared in partnership by the Union for Reform Judaism and the Islamic Society of North America this past year.

This initiative is supported in South Florida by JAM & All, an organization of Jews, Muslims, Christians and others dedicated to creating peace, understanding and social harmony. TAO was a founding member of JAM and Dr. Samina Qureshi, a Board member of our partner mosque, Islamic Foundation of South Florida, was on the first interfaith panel held at TAO in October 2001. TAO has continued to hold "Together As One" interfaith services and many TAO members have participated in JAM events.

community. Most important, you will discover how to expand your heart within a Jewish framework. Nothing beats that!

Your membership
empowers TAO and Jewish Renewal. Your participation is crucial to the continuation and

Just as in an election
where each vote counts,
your personal contribution tells us that you care and
are willing to be counted
as a supporter of our Jewish Renewal Center.
Your membership allows
the continued growth of our community.

Please consider donating

away, and your donations
help us support all who need us. Anyone who wants to pray with us is welcome.

What you derive from membership is priceless
and often cannot be put into words, but without the price, we can't offer the service.
